Statewide Raffle Benefits Special Olympics Montana Athletes

[Great Falls, MT - May 26, 2011] The drawing for the Optimum/Chevy Raffle Grand Prize, a 2011 Chevy Silverado crew cab pickup truck, was held on May 13 in Bozeman during the Closing Ceremonies at the Special Olympics Montana State Summer Games.

The lucky winner of the brand new pickup will receive her new wheels on Saturday, May 28, at 11:00 am at City Motor Company, 3900 10th Avenue South in Great Falls.

The winner, Susan Keeting, works in the Information Services Division of the Montana Department of Transportation in Helena. She bought the winning ticket at Lowe's in Helena.

Susan was surprised and a bit skeptical when Special Olympics Montana Development Director, Leslie Moyar, called to deliver the happy news. Susan called Special Olympics Montana offices later in the day to verify that she had indeed won the truck.

The Optimum/Chevy Raffle benefits Special Olympics Montana athletes and statewide programs. Athletes, volunteers and sponsors sold $5 tickets throughout Montana to make this one of Special Olympics Montana's best ever fundraising events. The statewide campaign raised more than $350,000 to support Special Olympics Montana athletes and program.

Bob Norbie, CEO of Special Olympics Montana, Leslie Oakland Thomas of City Motor Company, and several cheering athletes will be present to hand Susan the keys to her new truck on Saturday. Congratulations and a big thank you to Susan... and happy motoring!
